

Bar area

Tables of 4 and 2, available for both dining and drinks. A mix of cosy, comfy seating. We offer the same menus and table service drinks if you are drinking or eating. To book give us a call or check online.

If you have visited The Plough before these tables are under the windows in front of the main bar.

Oak area (on the left of the front entrance through the bar)

Our airy, high ceilinged, garden facing room. Tables of 2 to 8. These tables are booked for eating only.

If you have visited The Plough before these tables are to the left as you enter the main door, then walk through the main bar. There are two areas, the first area has two tables one for 6 and one for 4 and is nearest the bar, the second area is the glazed area that has several tables seating from 2 to 4 guests.

Dining room (on the right of the front entrance)

Charming old-world design with a fireplace in the winter. In the upper dining room there is space for a table of up to 6, a table for 2 and one for 4, a slightly quieter area. Our lower dining room can accommodate a larger party of up to 12 people semi privately. We can also help with larger special occasions in the dining room, with space for up to 22 people in the whole area, give us a call to discuss options.

Outside areas

We are very lucky to have beautiful gardens. We have a decked area that is covered with all weather sails, however there is no heating! Just some blankets. In our front garden we have 8 tables sprawled across our lawn. We have made the decision not to book these ahead of time as they are exposed to the weather, however give us a call on the day for parties of up to five people to book for eating or drinking.
