Magpie Estate

Magpie Estate wines are from the Barossa Valley in Australia and is co-owned by our wine supplier Noel Young, who is also heavily involved in the making and blending of the wines, and his partner in Australia Rolf Binder. Noel and Rolf both love the wines from the Rhone valley in France, and the traditional varieties of the Rhone Valley –Syrah (Shiraz), Grenache, Mouvedre are the mainstays of the range. The aim is to make wines that reflect a sense of place, full flavoured wines with real depth, but not massive, dark, oaky wines- drinkability is the key here, and they are very food friendly styles too. The wines get great press around the world and have attracted a true ‘cult’ following.

The wines are handmade with a lot of love and have slightly irreverent labels. The idea is definitely to have some fun, making them, labelling them and ultimately drinking them!

We at the Plough have sold the wines for many years and they prove very popular with all of us and our customers! We thought it would be fun, and a good way to feature the range of Magpie Estate wines to have a separate page showcasing these.

France

Bordeaux

Le Jardin de Petit-Village, Pomerol 2017 £92.00

The second wine from the famous Chateau Petit-Village, is made in an earlier drinking style.

This is made from higher altitude premium Merlot vineyards, making a wine that is rich and full, smooth with great length. Violets and plums on the bouquet with a hint of vanilla from the oak ageing. Big, round and classy, best decanted.

Burgundy – White

Chassagne Montrachet 1er Cru 'Les Caillerets' Dom Joseph Colin 2018, France £99.00

Joseph Colin started in 2016 leaving Domaine Marc Colin. He took some vineyards with him and sourced others. His first vintage of just 40,000 bottles was eagerly bought up. In 2018 he has upped the quality again. This is hands-on thoughtful winemaking, he does not use sulphur during the winemaking- rather wanting the wine to express itself. Just a tiny amount is added at bottling as is the norm. This is expressive 1er cru white Burgundy. It has a lovely bouquet of peaches, pears, ripe citrus and some bready notes, the palate is similar with a wonderfully long nutty finish. Dover sole anyone?!

Rhone - White

Richard L'Amaraze Condrieu 2019 £70.00

The most famous white wine from the Rhone Valley. 100% Viognier

Classic Condrieu from the Northern Rhone made with the Viognier grape. Exotic nose of white peach and honeysuckle leads to similar flavours on a rich decadent palate with some spice and a long finish. A rich, full-bodied white wine.

Domaine de Vieux Telegraphe Chateauneuf-du-Pape Blanc 2016 £87.00

A lovely rich wine from the fabulous 2016 vintage it combines richness with freshness. With ripe pineapple and tangerine flavours balanced by crisp lime notes. Medium to full-bodied, it boasts a lovely, silky texture and a long, finely nuanced finish with spice and a hint of fruit peel.

Rhone - Red

Vieux Telegraphe Chateauneuf-du-Pape 'Piedlong' 2014 £75.00

Lovely mature Chateauneuf, this is not a powerhouse, more a full flavoured, perfumed, even quite elegant wine. Grenache dominated, it's still got plenty of body with sweet berry fruits, some dried herb and spice.

Italian – White

Isole e Olena Chardonnay 2018, Tuscany, £92.00

The name 'Isole e Olena' came about in the 1950s when two adjoining estates, 'Isole' and 'Olena', were purchased by the De Marchi family and combined to form one; After fermentation in barrel, the wine remained on the lees in one third new oak barrels for approximately ten months. During the first six months the wine was stirred occasionally, in the Burgundian style, to give more texture and complexity to the wine. Gold in colour, with an inviting bouquet. Aromas are rich with notes of toasted almonds and butter. The palate shows great balance between rich, ripe fruit, creamy brioche and complex minerality. The full-bodied mouth feel extends through the long finish.

Italian – Red

Isole e Olena 'Collezione Privata' Syrah 2016/17 £92.00

A perfumed, silky wine that dazzles with finesse. Silky tannins wrap around a core of dark blue/purplish fruit, lavender, spice, menthol and liquorice. Vivid and finely sculpted, with tremendous length. Best decanted and served with high quality red meat!

USA California - White

Au Bon Climat Nuits Blanche 2018

£90.00

The 2018 Chardonnay Nuits-Blanches au Bouge is another compelling wine in this range. It marries the textural richness typical of these wines with a good deal of brightness. Lemon confit, almond, new French oak and pastry all develop in the glass. I especially like the energy here. Nuits-Blanches au Bouge is a blend from the K Block at Bien Nacido and Le Bon Climat.

Ramey Russian River Chardonnay 2017

£85.00

This is one heck of a deal for a wine of this quality and substance. Sourced from four ranches farmed by the Dutton family, as well as the producer's estate and two Rochioli sites, it shows the beauty of blending from such incredible places—a study in exotic lemony quince and soft supple structure. The lasting finish is textured and complex.

USA California – Red

Ridge Vineyards ‘East Bench’ Zinfandel 2019, Sonoma County

£75.00

Ridge has made the East Bench as a single-site zinfandel since 2006. One of only two Ridge zinfandels that are entirely from the single varietal. The vineyard sits high atop the bench land that overlooks Dry Creek Valley from the east. The wine is aged in 100% air-dried American oak barrels (a mixture of new and used oak) for twelve months. Ripe, jammy, raspberry fruit with pepper, eucalyptus and sweet toasted oak. Rich, brambly fruit on the palate, sensuous texture and a long layered finish.

Au Bon Climat Bauge Au Dessus 2017

£70.00

Drawn from Bien Nacido and the Clendenen Family vineyards, this wine's smoky black-cherry fruit gets richer with air, lingering on a scent of mulled berries. The flavours remain smoky and dark, with a concentrated but elegant palate, quiet and refined.

Argentina

Trapiche ‘Terroir Series’ Malbec, Finca Ambrosia Mendoza 2017 vg

£70.00

From the sub-region of Tupungato in Mendoza comes this big, bold Malbec from super high altitude vineyards (1307m above sea level). Deep red colour with ruby hues. Intense aromas of dark fruit with notes of smoke, mint, spices, thyme, graphite and licorice. The palate is suitably robust, showing off a great density of plum and black cherry, liquorice and meat too with spice and lots of chocolaty toasty oak.

Australia

Charles Melton Wines ‘Nine Popes’ 2015, Barossa Valley,

£75.00

Charles Melton Wines has produced premium Barossa red wines since 1984. A range of different techniques are used in the production of Nine Popes, including hand-plunging and whole-bunch fermentation. Wild as well as cultured yeasts are used in a mix of both co-fermentation and mono-varietal fermentation. After pressing, the wine was aged predominantly in older oak on its lees, with only 25% new oak used. Deep bright crimson in colour, this wine opens with sweet Grenache perfumes which intermingle with liquorice spice on the nose. Beautifully balanced with soft tannins, it culminates in a long savoury finish.

Veritas Winery ‘Bulls Blood’ Shiraz, Mataro Pressings, Barossa Valley 2015

£78.00

A wine with a long history in Hungary dating back to the 1500s, the Binder family has been producing their Australian expression of Bulls Blood for almost 50 years. It is a blend of two great varieties, Shiraz and Mataro (Mourvedre). To give more intensity and complexity to the wine, it's made using the Mataro pressings from the fruit taken from century old Mataro bush vines, grown on the estate just behind the winery. 'Swaggeringly powerful', 'swaggeringly textured fruit', 'super rich and multi layered' - these are some descriptors enthusiastic Bulls Blood drinkers have use for this blend. Such flavours and aromas as spicy juicy fruit, hints of chocolate & earthy characters are prevalent in this wine. Certainly one to enjoy with a long slow braise of lamb, venison or beef.

New Zealand

Burn Cottage Central Otago Pinot Noir 2018 vg

£86.00

This is a highly acclaimed small production Pinot Noir that is also grown and produced bio dynamically.

The 2012 Burn Cottage shows aromas of blackberry and dark cherry with hints of exotic fruits and spice. Lovely notes of black cherry, raspberry and spice, it is quite concentrated with lovely acidity and structured tannins. Best decanted to allow the concentrated fruit to open up. Great with lamb.
